Christmas for Kids

Happy Thanksgiving: Trinity staff would like to wish everyone a very Happy Thanksgiving. If you are traveling, have a safe journey there and back.

Christmas for Kids: CFK will be held at Trinity School on Dec. 8th, 2018 from 9:30am-12:30pm for children in Preschool-6th grade. The students will celebrate the true meaning of CHRISTmas-Christ!. While parents are able to use this time to go Christmas shopping, the children will have opportunity to learn about Jesus' birth, play games, make Christmas gifts, sing and celebrate Jesus' birthday with a special meal and birthday dessert! Please join us for a morning full of fun and excitement! Registration forms are available on a table in the Narthex. Please submit forms by Monday, Dec. 3rd.

Volunteers are needed to help in our rotating stations and for donation items for our activities and lunch. There are sign-up sheets in the back to help out wherever you're able. If you have any questions, please speak with Melissa Borchardt at (989) 894-2092. Thank you for your help and support!

Vision Testing: On Monday, Nov. 26, there will be vision testing on all students in 1, 3, 5, & 7th grade. If you would like your child(ren) tested even if they are not in those classes please let Mrs. Ferrio know and she will make sure your child gets tested.

Picture Retakes: Trinity should be getting the pictures back soon. If you are not satisfied with the pictures, please have your child bring them back to school on Tues, 11/27, to have another picture taken.

Children Late to School or Sick:

Please call school if your child(ren) will be late or are sick. Teachers would appreciate if you could let school know by 9am. Please call school before 9am. If you text the teacher late they might not get the text so Mrs. Ferrio will be calling

Devotion:

John 5:25,28,29

"...the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God and those who hear will live...all who are in their graves will hear his voice and come out."

John 5:25,28,29

The Life-Giving Voice

Various voices vie for our attention

every day. Yet there is one voice among them all that offers everlasting refuge and relief. From the immutable message of the Bible I hear the comforting voice of Christ Jesus.

Jesus' voice stands in sharp contrast to the enticing voice of the world. Daily, the sinful world seeks to deceive me with its empty promise of pleasure and its vain pledge of treasure. In the midst of the earthly temptations which allure me, the voice of my conscience is speaking too. It convicts me of my guilt and sin. Furthermore, the holy voice of God thunders with the verdict of death upon me for my sin.

Jesus' voice cuts through the hopeless clamor of despair. He comes with his good news of life! His message reaches the ears and changes the heart. His word provides the answer to the curse of sin. The curse of my sin was placed upon him as he offered his life upon the cross. From Calvary Jesus cried, "It is finished." In death, his voice was the voice of victory for a dying world of sinners. Through the gospel Jesus freely gives pardon for all my sins. While I live on earth, his word is my life. His message provides heavenly hope that revives me and divine peace that comforts me.

The gospel message will also comfort me as death draws ever nearer. One day my voice will be silenced by the grave. Yet even in the sleep of death, I will hear that victorious voice of the risen Savior. From the dust and ashes of death, Jesus will call me to come forth from the grave. By his grace, he will give me eternal life.

When I rise to live with Jesus in heaven, I rejoice to know that all of the voices that plague me in this life will be silenced. No longer will the voice of the world tempt me; no longer will the voice of Satan accuse me; no longer will the voice of fear disquiet me; no longer will the voice of death shake me! My living Savior will bring me to that home of endless life and boundless joy.

Amidst all the voices vying for your attention, one voice stands out. Trust the voice of Jesus. He gives life now and promises eternal life to come!

Prayer:

Dearest Jesus, continually renew my life through your word. Calm my troubled heart with the promise of your love. Inspire me with the sure hope of eternal life to come. Amen.
